General Information

All individuals entering the fairgrounds have to pay for each day. A three day pass will be available to all livestock individuals when entering the fairgrounds. All livestock showing individuals (including showers, parents, helpers, etc.) will need to ask for a livestock wristband when entering the fairgrounds. The proper wristband will be necessary to show livestock at ALL shows. If a livestock showman does not have the proper wristband, they will NOT be able to show.

Gate Admissions and information can all be found on the McLean County Fair Website.
